DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1, 7, 9-10 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the applicant admitted prior art (AAPA) in view of D'Souza (5,323,107).

As per claims 1 and 7, the AAPA discloses a system for testing a plurality of cores in an integrated circuit, comprising:

a plurality of slave controllers, each of the slave controller for testing at least one of the plurality of cores; and a master controller coupled with the plurality of slave controllers, the master controller configured to allow test data to be input directly to a portion of the plurality of slave controllers, the portion of the plurality of slave controllers including more than one slave controller.

Art Unit: 2138

(See Fig. 1, page 2, line 3 to pg. 3, line 9). The AAPA does not disclose that the master controller coupled with the plurality of slave controllers in a star configuration, the master controller configured to allow test data to be input directly to a portion of the plurality of slave controllers in parallel. However, D'Souza discloses that the master controller coupled with the plurality of slave controllers in a star configuration, the master controller configured to allow test data to be input directly to a portion of the plurality of slave controllers in parallel (Fig. 9, col. 6, line 55 to col. 7, line 2). Therefore, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art, at the time the invention was made, to incorporate the master controller coupled with the plurality of slave controllers in a star configuration as taught by D'Souza into the master controller of the AAPA so that the master controller can be configured to allow test data to be input directly to a portion of the plurality of slave controllers in parallel to save testing time.

As per claims 9-10, 14-15 and 16, these methods claims are rejected under similar rationale as set forth in the system claims 1 and 7.

4. Claims 2-6, 11-13 and 17-21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

5. Claim 8 is allowable.

Art Unit: 2138

Allowable Subject Matter

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 8 is allowable over the art of record. This is because the art of record does not teach or disclose the invention as recited in claim 8, including a plurality of AND gates coupled with the plurality of slave controllers and the master controller; and at least one test data input coupled with the plurality of AND gates, the master controller configured to provide an encoded address to enable a portion of the plurality of AND gates to couple a portion of the plurality of slave controllers to the at least one test data input in parallel, thereby allowing the test data to be input directly to the portion of the plurality of slave controllers in parallel, the portion of the plurality of slave controllers including more than one slave controller.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

7. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Phung My Chung whose telephone number is 571-272-3818. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.
